FAR Guidelines

STATINTL

1. The attached paper providing guidelines for Foreign Area Research is the product of representatives of the 21 Agencies of FAR who have been tinkering with the language for several months without significant improvement in it. [redacted] represented the Agency during this period and attempted to get our views reflected as much as possible.

2. [redacted] Coordinator for Academic Relations and, also, the new Agency representative for FAR (replacing [redacted] advised that both he and [redacted] concurred in the paper without change. Because of a very short deadline, I reviewed it for DDS&T and concurred also. The paper is sent to you for information and, if you have any comments, I would certainly welcome them.
